MENTORSHIP OF GRADUATE AND UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

PhD Students

2022 - 2025

PhD committee member in Architecture - Cultural resilience through housing adaptation for an immigrant population in Jacksonville

Graduate students and scholars

Students worked on various research projects, with tasks focused on data mining, literature reviews, and drawing in various digital media (GIS, Illustrator, AutoCAD, Photoshop):

2024

Visiting scholar from Italy that collaborated in GIS mapping. Florida Institute for Built Environment Resilience

2023-2025

Graduate student majoring in Architecture. Student presented at ARCC 2023 and The Florida Resilient Conference 2024 on the research projects I supervised. Florida Institute for Built Environment Resilience

2022-2023

Graduate students majoring in Architecture and Urban and Regional Planning and one undergraduate student in Landscape Architecture. Florida Institute for Built Environment Resilience

2021

Four graduate students majoring in Architecture, Landscape Architecture and Urban and Regional Planning. Florida Institute for Built Environment Resilience

Fall 2020

Graduate student majoring in Urban and Regional Planning. Florida Institute for Built Environment Resilience

Spring 2020

Graduate student, Master Thesis, NeoAgriculture: Using Urban Agriculture As A Method To Combat Food Deserts And Improve Social Equity Across America, Drury University

Undergraduate students

2024-2025

Undergraduate student in architecture within the University Research Scholars Program of the Honors College, Center for Undergraduate Research at UF

Fall 2020

Undergraduate student, Graduate Design Studio, Morgan State University

Supervision and mentoring the first cohort of GatorCorps members

2024-2025

Six students studying at DCP, UF IFAS, UF Environment Studies or recently graduated. One student got the 2025 Florida Green Building Coalition Scholarship

2023-2024

Sixteen students studying at DCP, UF, UNF, Santa Fe College or recently graduated.

Mentoring a first-generation student at University of Florida

As part of the "Life Coach program" by the First-Generation Student Success organization:

2019

Undergraduate student, first generation college student at University of Florida

Supervision and mentoring a group of undergraduate architecture students

In a service-learning outreach program, "Building our Future." Students delivered workshops in elementary schools in rural areas of Alachua County:

2017-2018

Nineteen students, School of Architecture, UF
