Turning Property Buyouts Into Public Assets: An Open Space Management Guide

The Open Space Management Guide: Building Community Capacity to Program FEMA-Funded Housing Buyout Land was created to give communities actionable guidance on how to develop and implement open space management strategies for acquired land. Using applicable land use and landscape design processes, the guide frames open space design, implementation, and maintenance within FEMA buyout rules and provides local governments with the information they need to access the funding, policy, and technical assistance to manage the open space.
